Article - Interior Door Handles

30/09/2010

Vehicle interior is a subjective business where each user (clients, car manufacturers, designers, engineers,..) present different alternatives. However, when choosing there is a series of specific elements on which all coincide: comfort, material durability, minimal noise, wide spaces, style and decoration. (Read the complete article in the Benchmarking section).