New C4 Picasso with innovative parts by Maier

15/01/2014

At the beginning of July the launch of the new Citroën C4 Picasso (project B78) was officially announced. The vehicle was presented at the most recent Geneva Motor Show and it employs a number of parts developed by Maier, such as exterior mountings and interior door handles.